

Intro – We have discussed “perfection” and how this Biblical idea affects our lives.

1. Conditional Perfection _____

2. Actual Perfection _____

- Actual perfection is a way of life _____

The Holy Spirit and Perfection

- Most TV religions promote “manufactured spirituality” _____

- Much of the efforts at changing worship styles stem from the notion that:

- The true results of this approach are twofold:

1. Elitism

- We see this in our brotherhood in the guise of the progressive/traditional debates.

- Both sides are right and wrong.

A. Progressives _____

B. Traditionals _____

2. Loss of Faith

- Romans 10:17 _____

- For example, the Boston/International Church of Christ movement _____

- The phenomenon that is present in Pentecostal or charismatic churches is creeping into ours too.

- Spiritual feelings/experiences are legitimate if they are produced by the Holy Spirit.

- Here's the point:

Legitimate spiritual feelings and experiences within the Christian life are generated by the Holy Spirit when _____.

- The spiritual experience of the cross is limitless and timeless. It does 4 things for me:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

- Pursuing actual perfection brings harmony.

- Through the work of the Holy Spirit perfecting me, I become a _____.

- True worship, therefore, takes place when _____.
